Employee benefits solutions

global.lockton.com

Employee benefits are vital to the success of any organisation and are playing an increasingly important role in reward and wellbeing strategies.

As the foundation of employee support and a driver for long-term employee engagement, they are also crucial in differentiating the employee value proposition.

However, sourcing, selecting and implementing the right employee benefits for your particular organisation can prove complex and demanding.

The Lockton Locker is a suite of carefully chosen employee benefits, designed and negotiated to give employers access to high-quality propositions in a seamless manner.

With our solution, ease of choice is not at the expense of quality. Your organisation can implement one or many of the employee benefits within the Lockton Locker quickly, easily and with confidence.

Excellence as a minimum, not an ideal

We recognise that every organisation has different needs and specific goals. That's why we designed Lockton Locker to help you easily choose benefits that are relevant to your business, worthy of your investment, and that offer value to your people. For each benefit, we have focused on securing the fundamental features. However, that's not where our solution ends.

We have drawn on our depth of expertise across benefits, wellbeing, technology, and organisational strategy, to make sure the Lockton Locker provides enriched and Lockton best-practice features for each benefit, as a standard.
